VOL. XVIII.]

MONDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1817.

[No. 5056.]

For the prevention and cure of
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended
Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful the inventor's feelings in several parts the West Indies and in the Southern Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons be adduced, who have reason to believe that timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak in favour of a medicine than commons of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, at in the earlier stages of these diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases teemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its mord secretions—to restore and amend the digestion—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first manifestation: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.
They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and could be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir.
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, croup, and approaching consumptions—to parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.
Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Consumptions the stomach and loss of spirits back
loss of appetite Indigestion
impurity of blood Melancholy
hysterical affection Gout in the stomach and weaknesses Pains in the limbs and debility Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.
A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic pain, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that irritating smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.
An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing their root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable rout of Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes
the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.
A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.
The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops
For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

EDUCATION.

The Lion o'er his wild domains,
Rules by the terror of his eye;
The Eagle of the rock retains,
By force, his empire in the sky;
The Shark, the tyrant of the flood,
Pursues his prey with quenchless rage,
Parent and young, unweaned from blood,
Are still the same from age to age.

Of all that live, and move, and breathe,
Man only rises o'er his birth;
He looks above, around, beneath—
At once the heir of Heaven and Earth.
Force, cunning, speed, which nature gave
The various tribes throughout her plan,
Life to preserve, from death to save—
These are the lowest powers of man.

From strength to strength he travels on,
He leaves the lingering brute behind,
And when a few short years are gone,
He says a disembodied mind;
Destined his future course sublime
Through nobler, better paths to run,
With him the certain end of time,
Is but eternity begin.

What aids him in this high pursuit,
Opens, illumines, cheers the way,
Discerns the immortal from the brute—
God's image in the mould of clay?
Tis Knowledge!—Knowledge to the soul
Is power, and liberty and peace,
And while celestial ages roll,
The joys of knowledge shall increase.

Aid then the generous plan which spreads
The light with universal beams,
And through the human desert leads Truth's living, pure, perpetual streams.
Behold! a new creation rises,
New spirit breath'd into the clod,
Where'er the voice of Wisdom cries—
Man know thyself, and fear thy God!

CZERNEY-GEORGES.

Georges Petrowich, better known by the name of Czerny-Georges, that is to say, Black George, was born of a noble Serbian family, in the neighborhood of Belgrade. Before he had attained the age of manhood, he was one day met by a Turk, who with an imperious air ordered him to stand out of his way, at the same time declaring that he would blow out his brains. Czerny-Georges, however, prevented him from putting this threat into execution, and by the discharge of a pistol immediately laid him dead on the ground.

To avoid the dangerous consequences of this affair, he took refuge in Transylvania, and entered the military service of Austria, in which he quickly obtained the rank of non-commissioned officer. His captain having ordered him to be punished, Czerny-Georges challenged and killed him. He then returned to Serbia, where at the age of twenty-five, he became the chief of one of those bands of malcontents which infest every part of the Turkish dominions, who pride themselves upon the title of Kleptai, or brigand, and whom the non-Muslim population consider as their avengers and liberators. Czerny-Georges encamped in the thick forests, waged war against the Turks with unheard of cruelty—he spared neither age nor sex, and extended his ravages throughout the whole province of Serbia. The Turks having by way of retaliation, condemned twenty six of the principal Servians to death, the father of Czerny-Georges, shocked at so many horrors, determined to abandon the banners of his son, whom he had previously joined. The old man even threatened to deliver up the whole troop to the power of the Turks, unless they immediately consented to relinquish the useless contest. Czerny-Georges, however, to alter his resolution; but the old man persisted and set out for Belgrade. His son followed him. Having arrived at the Serbian outposts, he threw himself on his knees and again entreated that his father would not betray his country; but finding him inflexible, he drew out his pistol, fired it, and thus became the murderer of his parent.

The Servians still continued to augment the band of Czerny-Georges. Emboldened by the numerous advantages he had obtained, this chief at length sallied from his forests, besieged Belgrade, and on the 1st of September, 1806, forced that important fortress to surrender. Being proclaimed Generalissimo of his nation, he governed it with unlimited power. The principal nobles and ecclesiastics, under the presidency of the archbishop, formed a kind of senate or synod, which assembled at Semendria, and which claimed the right of exercising the sovereignty. But Czerny-Georges annulled the acts of the assembly, and declared by a decree, that "during his life no one should rise above him—that he was sufficient in himself, and stood in need of no advisers." In 1807 he ordered one of his brothers to be hanged for some trifling want of respect towards him.

The conquest of Serbia was accompanied by the massacre of the Turks; no mercy was shown even to those who voluntarily surrendered themselves. Czerny-Georges being attacked by an army of 50,000 Mussulmen, valiantly defended the banks of the Morava, and had he possessed the means of obtaining foreign officers to discipline the intrepid Servians, he might perhaps have re-established the Kingdom of Serbia, which under Stephen III. resisted the Moguls, and under Stephen Duscian, included Bulgaria, Macedonia, and Bosnia. In 1807, Serbia, though tributary to the Turks, still retained its national Princes, who assumed the title of Despots; in 1465, they were succeeded by a Turkish Pasha. Their house became extinct in 1560.

Czerny-Georges was tall and well made; but his appearance was altogether savage and displeasing, owing to the disproportionate length of his countenance, his small and sunken eyes, bald forehead, and his singular method of wearing his hair, gathered together in one enormous tress, which hung down upon his shoulders. His violent spirit was marked by an exterior of coldness and apathy; he sometimes passed whole hours without uttering a single syllable, and he never knew how to read or write. He never resorted to the diversion of hunting above once during the year. He was then accompanied by from three to 400 Paudours, who assisted him in waging a deadly war against the wolves, foxes, deer, and wild goats which inhabit the forests of fertile but uncultivated Serbia. The entire produce of his hunting was publicly sold for his own profit. He also sought to augment his patrimony by confiscation.

At the treaty of peace in 1812, Russia provided for the interests of Serbia. That province was acknowledged to be a vassal and tributary of the Porte. Czerny-Georges retired to Russia; and lived at Kissonoff in Bessarabia.

His return to Serbia in disguise, his discovery and execution, have been recently stated.

From the National Intelligencer.

The following singular error occurs in a late Philadelphia paper.

The civil authority of the city of Washington has passed an edict against dogs, and have ordered into immediate confinement all the human race, under pain of extermination. [This is no doubt a blunder of the compositor, human being put for canine.]

This is almost as unfortunate a mistake as that made the other day, by the Albany Daily Advertiser in announcing a respectable man, to the utter astonishment of all who knew him, as having been convicted of petty larceny! It turned out in the end that he was only a witness against the convict, and the case occurred in making a summary from the Criminals docket.

These typographical mischances are sometimes amusing enough. Some years ago, in a bill brought into Congress to amend the charter of the City of Washington, the usual power was accorded to the Corporation to regulate party fences. By a hallucination of the compositor, who had probably been used to work in a newspaper office, the bill, as printed, proposed to vest in our City Council the power of regulating party feuds.

A gentleman of considerable landed property was observing to a learned judge that he found great difficulty in enforcing rents from his tenants—"That must be your own fault," replied the noble Judge, "There's distress enough in the country."

On board one of the prizes recently carried into Amelia Island, were 1000 boxes cigars, put up expressly for the King of Spain.

A suspicious man resembles a traveller in the wilderness, who sees no object around him but such as are dreary and uncomfortable.

IMPORTING COMPANY.

Last evening, agreeably to the invitation through the medium of the public papers, a very large meeting of the principal traders of this city was held at Bulet's room, in Commerce street; when gen. Samuel Smith, was called to the chair, and Jas. W. McCulloch, esq. appointed secretary. Col. Buchanan stated to the meeting, in a very clear and intelligent manner, the objects in view; the propriety and feasibility of establishing a company for the purpose of importing goods from all parts of Europe, that this market may be as well supplied as any other on the continent of America; thereby securing to Baltimore that extensive trade its geographical situation so naturally entitles it to. Resolutions were adopted for carrying this grand project into complete effect; and a committee of twenty-five persons was appointed to make the necessary arrangements for the formation of the company, and to report their proceedings to a subsequent meeting. It is believed the capital of the company is to be three million of dollars, and its establishment is contemplated for twenty years.

Such an association as this certainly merits deliberate consideration; and if prosecuted with vigor and intelligence, cannot fail to be of great public utility. For ourselves, we anticipate the most favorable result, and calculate as early as next spring, that many of its advantages will be clearly manifested.

[Baltimore Patriot, Oct. 23.]

G. I. Hunt, of New-York, has invented and manufactured a beautiful vermilion, said to be equal, if not superior, to the Chinese, and composed from articles purely American.

A Paris paper of Aug. 31, has the following:—"It is said that Russia has become a mediator between the U. States and the court of Naples. The happiest results are expected."

An interesting civil cause was determined at the fall circuit of the superior court of Connecticut, which lately closed its session at Norwich. The plaintiff, Amasa Hyde, is a respectable postmaster at Franklin; and the defendant, Roger Bailey, sustains a like office at Lebanon. A treasury note of $1000, in an envelope, was put into the defendant's office, directed to a person in New-York, which miscarried, and Bailey charged the plaintiff, without the least pretext, with having taken the same; which gave cause for the action of slander. The jury found a verdict for the plaintiff, with $650 damages. The court requesting a reconsideration on the subject of damages only, the jury reduced the amount to $400, which was accepted by the court. Both parties were alike innocent of the embezzlement of the note, which was found in an old letter bag at another office.

[Baltimore Patriot.]

A communication from an Englishman, in the New York Gazette, recommends the making of Scalded Cream Butter, which is now practised in many parts of England, and by which method a greater quantity of butter, and a more palatable quality, can be obtained from milk, than by the common mode. The following is the process:—

As soon as the milk has been taken from the cow, it must be placed in an earthen or tin vessel, and allowed to stand 12 hours. It must be then placed on a steady wood fire, free as possible from smoke, and scalded for 30 minutes, particular care must be taken not to allow it to boil. It must be then placed in a cool situation, and on the following day a thick rich cream will appear on the surface of the milk, (which is excellent also for desert purpose) this may be taken and made into butter in the common way.

EXPEDIENTS FOR CROSS OF TANNING.

Every nation is ambitious of its superior advantages, whether they arise from agriculture, commerce or the arts; evincing a desire to render such advantages subservient to other objects, and to proclaim them to the world. Hence I am actuated in making the following communication.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman of respectability, dated Boston, October 15, 1817.

Sir—"I enclose a piece of Morocco Leather. The goat from which the skin was taken, was alive at Charlestown yesterday morning—and before two o'clock, yesterday the skin was tanned as you see it, a pair of good shoes made from it, and transported six miles from town to the cattle show—you may rely on the truth of it."

From the Albany Daily Advertiser.

GENERAL ST. CLAIR.
The following sketch of the military life and services of gen. St. Clair, one of the most patriotic, brave and skillful, and at the same time the most unfortunate of our revolutionary heroes, is extracted from Wilkinson's Memoirs. The chilling and studied neglect which this gallant veteran has experienced from the general government in his old age, cannot have escaped the attention of all those who are capable of estimating the services of the brave champion of his country's rights, and who have hearts to feel for his misfortune. One act of misfortune, and one only, has been performed towards gen. St. Clair; and that was recently done by the legislature of Pennsylvania: He now resides in a small hut, in poverty, on a mountain in the interior of Pennsylvania. Let those who have witnessed the prodigality with which riches and honors have been bestowed upon the officers who have been fortuitously elevated during the late war, read the following, and drop a tear over the fate of St. Clair.

FROM WILKINSON'S MEMOIRS.

"He had been introduced at an early age into the Royal American or 60th British regiment, and during the seven years war, had seen a great deal of active service under distinguished commanders. He served at the taking of Louisburgh under gen. Amherst, and the next campaign carried a pair of colours on the plains of Abraham, the day gen. Wolfe bartered his life for deathless renown. The native ingenuity, liberal education, literary taste, and polished address of ensign St. Clair, could not escape the observation of the conqueror of Canada, & his able coadjutors Monkton, Townshend, and Murray; and the circumstance of their attention enlarged his sphere of information, and gave scope to his genius and dispositions. After the peace of 1763, he sold out and entered into trade, for which the generosity of his nature utterly disqualified him; he of course soon became disgusted with a profitless pursuit and having married after several vicissitudes of fortune, he located himself in Ligonier valley west of the Allegheny mountain, and near the ancient route from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh. In this situation the American revolution found him, surrounded by a rising family, in the enjoyment of ease and independence, with the fairest prospects of affluent fortune, the foundation of which had been already established by his intelligence, industry and enterprise. From this peaceful abode, these sweet domestic enjoyments and the flattering prospects which accompanied them, he was drawn by the claims of a troubled country. A man known to have been a military officer, and distinguished for knowledge and integrity, could not, in those times, be concealed even by his favorite mountains, and therefore, without application or expectation on his part, he received the commission of a colonel in the month of December, 1776, together with a letter from president Hancock, pressing him to repair immediately to Philadelphia. He obeyed the summons, and took leave not only of his wife and children, but in effect of his fortune, to embark in the cause of liberty and the united colonies. In six weeks he completed the levy of a regiment of 750 men; six companies of which marched in season to join our troops before Quebec; he followed with the other four in May, and after the unlucky affair at Three Rivers, by his counsel to gen. Sullivan at Sorel, he saved the army we had in Canada. Subsequently to these events he rose to the rank of major gen. and was honored with the confidence and friendship of gen. Washington to the day of his death. At Trenton he saved the army by the flank movements to the right, which he recommended in council on the night of the 2d Jan. 1777; and at Ticonderoga, in the same year, I beheld him rising superior to the selfish obligations which fetter mankind; and by preferring the safety of the army confided to his charge, to the bloody honors which were within his reach, he voluntarily plunged himself into the gulf of popular detraction. Well do I remember his reply to me, when deploring the necessity of our retreat: "It must be so, my boy. 'Tis not in mortals to command success, but we'll do more, we'll deserve it." I know I could save my character by sacrificing the army; but were I to do so, I should forget that which the world could not restore, and which it cannot take away, the approbation of my own conscience." What a noble sentiment! Can such services and sacrifices be belated by pelf? and is it meant that such a patriot should be suffered to drag out a tedious term of old age in indigence, and be buried in obscurity? Do such glaring neglects comport with the liberality and beneficence of an enlightened people? Are they consistent with justice and sound policy? Reason and humanity revolt against these propositions! and it is hoped, that the virtue and good sense of the people, which when spontaneously exerted, seldom err, may be actively interposed to rescue the country from the sin of ingratitude, and the shame of neglecting those faithful citizens, whose whole time has been devoted to the public service. A contrary course pursued by the agents of the general government, has already tarnished the character of the republic; and if persisted in will sap the foundations of patriotism, convert the military into mercenary, and the civil functionaries into sordid speculators; and instead of a magnanimous policy, the views of our public councils will be contracted to the narrow circle of selfish interest; and then the love of our country, and our admiration of its constitution, will yield to avaricious passions and ambitious projects, and like our primitive parents, and every people who have gone before us, we shall forfeit for a shadow, the solid blessings prepared for us by our indulgent Creator."

The following anecdote is taken from a speech delivered at the annual meeting of the British and Foreign Bible Society, in May last, by the hon. Mr. Money, member of parliament.

"Between two and three years ago I went from Bombay into the Mahratta country, for the health of my family, and we encamped on the bosom of a beautiful grove at Lanocoy, about thirty miles from Poona. One day as our little girl, not three years old, was walking through the grove with her native servant, they approached an ancient and deserted Hindoo temple; the man quitting the little child, stepped aside, and immediately paid his adorations to a stone idol, that was seated at the door of the temple. When he returned, the following dialogue took place between them. "Sanny, what for you do that?" "Oh Missy, that my God." "Your god! Why your god a stone—your god no can see—no can hear—no can move. My God make you—make me—make every thing."

We remained at this sequestered place for four months, and the scene I have described has been frequently repeated. Sanny never failed to repeat to the temple, and the child never failed to rebuke him for his idolatry. He became, notwithstanding, very much attached to her; and when he thought she was going to Europe, he said to her, "What will poor Sanny do when Missy go to England? Sanny no father, no mother." She instantly replied, "Oh Sanny, if you love my God, he will be your father and mother too."

"The old man, with tears in his eyes, promised to love her God. "Then," said she, "you must learn my prayer; and she taught him the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, and the morning and evening Hymns. One morning, when we were assembled to family worship, Sanny, of his own accord, quite unexpected, came into the room, took his turban from his head, laid it on the floor, and kneeling down, audibly repeated after me the Lord's Prayer. From thence forward there was a visible change in his whole conduct, particularly in his regard for truth. He became anxious to learn English, that he might read the bible, and in a little time he accomplished the task."

New York, Oct. 22.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND AND FRANCE.
To Capt. Benedict, of the last sailing ship, Weymouth, (who has performed his voyage in 72 days) the editors of the Gazette are indebted for London papers of the 15th, & Liverpool of the 17th of last month; and by the Maria Theresa, from Havre, French papers to the 13th ultimo, all inclusive. They contain no news of moment.

Accounts from Ireland state that the typhus fever had begun to subside.

The Prince Regent was landed at Brighton on the 13th, having been at sea five days and three nights; during which time he visited the coast of France.

Mrs. Cobbett, with her two sons and three daughters, sailed from Liverpool on the 10th, in the Aurora, for N. York.

The papers speak of the universal revival of trade in all parts of the kingdom, and particularly of the rise of cotton and linen goods.

Boston and New-York papers to the 22d August had been received in London.

Paris papers to the 13th contain nothing of interest. Desbordes and Chayoux, who plotted the assassination of Monsieur and son, had been shot in the plain of Greenoble.

Lord Wellington had been non-suited in his prosecution of the printer of the Ghent Journal, and adjudged to pay the cost. It is said the duke had appealed from this decision.

London Corn Exchange, Sept. 15.—Our market was well supplied with new wheat from Essex and Suffolk; the major part of which was very cold and rough, and met heavy sale at a decline of 8s per quarter from the prices of this week.

Prices at Liverpool, Sept. 16.—Am. flour, per bbl. 45 to 46s; English new wheat 10s 6d to 11s 6d; cotton, sea islands, 2s 3d to 3s; upland 1s 8d to 1s 10d; N. Orleans 1s 10d to 2s 1s; tar, Am. 16s to 17s; turpentine 15s to 16s; ashes, 1st pos. 51s to 53s; 1st pearls 65s to 66s.

The quality of the new wheat is very inferior—old is but a trifle cheaper.

The prices of bread stuffs continued to fall. The fineness of the weather, says the Liverpool Courier of the 17th, for some time past, has caused almost universal stagnation in trade. Fine wheats were sold yesterday at a further reduction of 1s. to 14. 3d. per bushel; and American flour 3s to 4s. per barrel, which is 45 to 46s.

Stocks in London, Sept. 15.—3 per cent. consols 79 3/4 to 1/2.

French funds—5 per cent. 68s. 65c.

Wheat, at the corn exchange, on the 19th, had declined in price eight shillings a quarter since the preceding week.

Sir John McMahon had died at Bath. On the 14th of Aug. a Portuguese frigate, and a man of war, with nine vessels full of troops, sailed from Lisbon for Rio Janeiro, and eight vessels full of troops for Bahia—also 26 sail of merchantmen for Brazil.

The British manufacturers were going on with spirit—cotton and linen goods were advancing in price.

A dreadful fire broke out on the 5th at Beauchamp six leagues from Amiens, in France. Forty five houses were destroyed.

A solemn mass has been celebrated at Vienna and throughout Austria, in gratitude to Heaven for the abundant harvest of this year.

The duke de Fernan Nunez is appointed ambassador from Spain to the court of France.

Every thing proves that the Porte is more than ever desirous to maintain with us the relations of amity. The news of military preparation in Turkey is denied.

General Foy, who had been condemned to death, on landing at Minorca, attempted to escape, and was shot dead in defending himself against his soldiers.

The Kalmouth, of 20 guns, had arrived at Portsmouth from St. Helena; which she left on the 29th of July. Bonaparte was never in better health than at that time; the perfect restoration of which he attributes to the constant use of the warm bath. He uses it as the greatest of luxuries, frequently staying in several hours, reading some book. He afterwards walks much in the grounds of Longwood, and fills up his more relaxed hours by playing at billiards.

No new political speculations appear in the London papers. They are filled with thankful ejaculations to Providence for a bountiful harvest, and for the renewal of business among the manufacturers.

FROM FRANCE.

We learn from captain Skiddy, from Havre, that there was no news in France. The market was dull, excepting for articles of cotton and coffee, which were in good demand.

Among the passengers in the Maria Theresa are Mr. and Mrs. Dale of this city, and Madame Patterson of Baltimore.

Paris, August 30.

Yesterday morning, at eleven o'clock, Monsieur, and the prince's sons, paid a visit to the count de Ruffin.

At half past twelve the king received the visit of the august traveller, who went to bid farewell to his majesty. The count also bid farewell to the princes and princesses of the royal family. He leaves the capital to-morrow, as we have already stated, for Aix-la-Chapelle. It is thought that, as he passes Cambray, he will be present at the review of the English troops, commanded by the duke of Wellington.

The 6th regiment of Swiss Guards, whose devoted fidelity the Diet of Switzerland has honored, was composed on the 10th August, 1792, of 82 officers.—Of these 38 were killed in the fight on the stairs of the palace of the Thuilleries, defending the king 23 perished in the various scenes before, 6 on the following day, 3 died since that period, and 10 are still surviving.

His grace the duke Wellington set out this morning with his suite.

A baker's boy, nineteen years of age, convicted in Hungary of having seven times committed the crime of arson, has been condemned by the tribunal of the county of Einsburg to be burned alive!

A great commercial house at Riga is negotiating in Germany a loan for the court of Russia; and we understand that the bank of Rostoff has subscribed one million and a half of six dollars in gold in the name of the elector of Hesse.

Madame Krudener has always plenty of money at her disposal. She expended in a short period more than 10,000 florins in gold. Several bills of exchange have been transmitted to her from different parts; and every one naturally asks, who furnished her with this money? She has been ordered to quit Constance, but nobody knows whether she is to go next.—During some fifteen days she has been denouncing the vengeance of Heaven on the police officers.

French Funds, Sept. 2.—Five per cent. 68s 70c; bank stock 187 1/2 50c.

Lausanne, August 22.

Among the foreigners lately arrived here from Rome, is remarked Mr. Watson, a Scotch gentleman, who is proceeding to London. Mr. Watson is proprietor of the archives of the Stuart family, which had been discovered and sold by M. Tassoni, auditor of the pope, and executor to the last will of the late Cardinal d'York.

These papers, of which the journals have made mention, are now on their way to England, the British government having sent two ships of war to Civita Vecchia to transport them thither. They are numerous, authentic, and very precious, being valued at half a million.—They remove whatever obscurity might still remain in the history of the Stuarts, and throw a new light on the literature, history and politics of the most interesting period of modern times. In the literary department is distinguished a correspondence between king James and Fenelon, Swift, the bishop of Rochester, had Bolingbroke, marshal Keith, and other personages equally celebrated. In the political part are found ten thousand autograph letters of the Stuart correspondence, as well as a great number from Charles XII. king of Sweden, from Peter the Great, czar of Muscovy, Louis XIV. and almost all the sovereigns of Europe.

The following singular occurrence took place in London, in Oct. last.

On this afternoon, (Oct. 19) a remarkable accident happened in the Haymarket. There were only two houses, which were to be pulled down to form the new street, left standing. Both adjoined the opera house. The one nearest the ruins suddenly fell, about a quarter past four o'clock, with a tremendous crash, carrying with it the party wall. The house being very old, the dust which arose from the ruins filled the lower part of the Haymarket and Cockspur street, & entering last, by the hon. Mr. Money, of parliament.

between two and three years ago I ran from Bay into the Mahabatta, for the health of my family, and resided on the bosom of a beautiful lake, about thirty miles from London. One day as our little girl, five years old, was walking through the native garden, they showed an ancient and deserted Hindu temple; the man quitting the little steps, and immediately paid attention to a stone idol, that was at the door of the temple. When asked, the following dialogue took place:—“Sammy, what is that?”—“Oh, Missy, that is your god! Why your god is your god, no one can see—no one can move. My God make you me—make every thing.”
The old man, with tears in his eyes, said to love her God. “Then,” she, “you must learn my prayer.” He taught him the Lord’s Prayer, and the morning and evening ones. One morning, when we were about to family worship, Sammy, of his own accord, quite unexpected, came into the room, took his turban from the rack, laid it on the floor, and, kneeling, audibly repeated after me the Lord’s Prayer. From thence forward was a visible change in his whole conduct, particularly in his regard for his father. He became anxious to learn English, that he might read the bible, and in the time he accomplished the task.”
New York, Oct. 22.
FROM ENGLAND AND FRANCE.
Capt. Benedict, of the last sailing, Weymouth, (who has performed his voyage in 72 days) the editors of the Globe are indebted for London papers of the 15th, & Liverpool of the 17th of last month; and by the Maria Theresa, from France, French papers to the 15th ultimo, inclusive. They contain no news of interest.
Accounts from Ireland state that the fever had begun to subside.
The Prince Regent was landed at London on the 15th, having been at sea six days and three nights; during which he visited the coast of France.
Mrs. Cobbett, with her two sons and two daughters, sailed from Liverpool the 16th, in the Aurora, for New York. The papers speak of the universal regret of trade in all parts of the kingdom, particularly of the rise of cotton and wool goods.
Boston and New-York papers to the 15th August had been received in London. Paris papers to the 15th contain nothing of interest. Desbats and Chayoux, who plotted the assassination of Monsieur de Montebello, had been shot in the plain of Senneville.
Lord Wellington had been non-suited in his prosecution of the printer of the London Journal, and adjudged to pay the costs. It is said the duke had appealed in this decision.
London Corn Exchange, Sept. 15.—The market was well supplied with new wheat from Essex and Suffolk; the majority of which was very cold and rough, and met heavy sale at a decline of 8s per quarter from the prices of this day week.
Prices at Liverpool, Sept. 16.—American, per bbl. 45 to 46s; English new wheat 10s 6d to 11s 6d; cotton, sea island, 2s 3d to 3s; upland 1s 8d to 1s 10d; New-Orleans 10d to 2s 10d; tar, a. 16 to 17s; turpentine 15 to 16s; peas, 1st pot, 51 to 53s; 1st pearls 65 to 66s.
The quality of the new wheat is very inferior—old is but a trifle cheaper.
The prices of bread stuffs continued to fall. The fineness of the weather, says the Liverpool Courier of the 17th, for the time past, has caused almost universal stagnation in trade. Fine wheats were sold yesterday at a further reduction 1s. to 1s. 3d. per bushel; and American flour 5 to 4s. per barrel, which is 45 to 46s.
Stocks in London, Sept. 15.—$ per cent. consols 79 3/4 to 1-2.
French funds—5 per cts. 68 1/2 to 69.
Wheat, at the corn exchange, on the 15th, had declined in price eight shillings a quarter since the preceding week.
Sir John McMahon had died at Bath. On the 14th of Aug. a Portuguese frigate, and a man of war, with nine vessels of troops, sailed from Lisbon for Rio de Janeiro, and eight vessels full of troops for Bahia—also 26 sail of merchantmen for Brazil.
The British manufactures were going on with spirit—cotton and linen goods were advancing in price.
A dreadful fire broke out on the 5th at Casuarine six leagues from Amiens, in France. Forty five houses were destroyed.
A solemn mass has been celebrated at Vienna and throughout Austria, in gratitude to Heaven for the abundant harvest of this year.

The Duke de Fernán Núñez is appointed ambassador from Spain to the court of France.
Every thing proves that the Porte is more than ever disposed to maintain with us the relations of amity. The preparations of military preparation in Turkey are continued.
General Duff, who had been condemned to death, on landing at Minorca, attempted to escape, and was shot dead in defending himself against the soldiers.
The Falmouth, of 20 guns, had arrived at Portsmouth from St. Helena, which she left on the 29th of July. Bonaparte was never in better health than at that time; the perfect restoration of which he attributes to the constant use of the warm bath. He uses it as the greatest of luxuries, frequently staying in several hours, reading some book. He afterwards walks much in the grounds of Longwood, and fills up his more relaxed hours by playing at billiards.
No new political speculations appear in the London papers. They are filled with thankful ejaculations to Providence for a bountiful harvest, and for the renewal of business among the manufacturers.
FROM FRANCE.
We learn from Captain Skiddy, from Havre, that there was no news in France. The market was dull, excepting for articles of cotton and coffee, which were in good demand.
Among the passengers in the Maria Theresa are Mr. and Mrs. Dale of this city, and Madame Patterson of Baltimore.
Paris, August 30.
Yesterday morning, at eleven o’clock, Monsieur, and the prince’s sons, paid a visit to the count de Rappin.
At half-past twelve the king received the visit of the august traveller, who went to bid farewell to his majesty. The count also bid farewell to the princes and princesses of the royal family. He leaves the capital to-morrow, as we have already stated, for Aix-la-Chapelle. It is thought that, as he passes Cambray, he will be present at the review of the English troops, commanded by the duke of Wellington.
The old regiment of Swiss Guards, whose devoted fidelity the Diet of Switzerland had honored, was composed on the 16th August, 1795, of 82 officers. Of these 28 were killed in the fight on the stairs of the palace of the Tuilleries, defending the king. 25 perished in the various some hours after, 6 on the following day, 5 died since that period, and 10 are still surviving.
His grace the duke Wellington set out this morning with his suite.
A baker’s boy, nineteen years of age, convicted in Hungary of having seven times committed the crime of arson, has been condemned by the tribunal of the county of Eisenburg to be burned alive!
A great commercial house at Riga is negotiating in Germany a loan for the bank of Russia; and we understand that the bank of Russia has subscribed one million and a half of six dollars in gold in the name of the elector of Hesse.
Madame Krudener has always plenty of money at her disposal. She expended in a short period more than 10,000 florins in gold. Several bills of exchange have been transmitted to her from different parts; and every one naturally asks, who furnished her with this money? She has been ordered to quit Constantinople, but nobody knows whether she is to go next.
During some fifteen days she has been denouncing the vengeance of Heaven on the police officers.
French Funds, Sept. 2.—Five per cents. 68 1/2 to 69; bank stock 187 1/2 to 190.
Lausanne, August 22.
Among the foreigners lately arrived here from Rome, is remarked Mr. Watson, a Scotch gentleman, who is proceeding to London. Mr. Watson is proprietor of the archives of the Stuart family, which had been discovered and sold by St. Tassoni, auditor of the pope, and executor to the last will of the late Cardinal d’York.
These papers, of which the journals have made mention, are now on their way to England, the British government having sent two ships of war to Civita Vecchia to transport them thither. They are numerous, authentic, and very precious, being valued at half a million.
They remove whatever obscurity might still remain in the history of the Stuarts, and throw a new light on the literature, history and politics of the most interesting period of modern times. In the literary department is distinguished a correspondence between King James and Evelyn, Swift, the bishop of Rochester, and Bolingbroke, and Keith, and other personages equally celebrated. In the political part are found ten thousand autograph letters of the Stuart correspondence, as well as a great number from Charles XII. king of Sweden, from Peter the Great, czar of Muscovy, Louis XIV. and almost all the sovereigns of Europe.
The following singular occurrence took place in London, in Oct. last.
On this afternoon, (Oct. 19) a remarkable accident happened in the Haymarket. There were only two houses, which were to be pulled down to form the new street, left standing. Both adjoined the opera house. The one nearest the ruins suddenly fell, about a quarter past four o’clock, with a tremendous crash, carrying with it the party wall. The house being very old, the dust which arose from the ruins filled no lower part of the Haymarket and Corkspur street, & entering the shops and houses, proved for some time very annoying to the inhabitants. Two gentlemen who were walking on the footpath, very narrowly escaped being buried in the ruins. The house, which had been occupied some time, was formerly tenanted by a butcher and hair dresser, and the cellar by a basket maker. A poor aged woman, who got her living by grafting silk stockings, had been permitted to live in the house, till it suited the workmen to commence pulling it down. Shortly after the accident, it occurred to some of the neighbors, that the poor woman was buried in the ruins. This suggestion being quickly circulated, the workmen at the new buildings hastened to the spot, and began to dig their way through the rubbish to the parlour, or room behind the shop, where they found not only the old woman but three other women, and a girl about 5 years of age, buried in the rubbish. Most providentially, the waistcoat of the room under which they were found, falling on a slant and lodging on the opposite side they were preserved alive, but wounded and bruised, and in terrible alarm; they were all extricated, though not without much difficulty. Had they not been rescued so quickly, they must have been suffocated. No sooner was the old woman safe, than she became extremely anxious to recover her silk stockings and some guinea pigs, which, to her great joy, the workmen likewise got out. At the time of the accident it appeared that the old woman was drinking tea with two female acquaintances; and the third person, accompanied by the little girl, had come to enquire after some stockings which had been left to be grafted.

Land for Sale
IF early application is made, I will dispose of 400 acres of the CEDAR GROVE tract of land. There is surplus timber and fire wood enough on the part I propose selling to pay, with judicious management, more than half the purchase money, at the price I ask. The situation is healthy, and the land fertile. Contiguity to market is also among its advantages: it being within less than a mile of Mr. Jonathan Janney's mill, where the Alexandria price may be had for grain. Persons wishing to purchase will apply to the subscriber, residing at Cedar Grove, ten miles below Alexandria, and one below Janney's mill.
sept. 29 EDGAR McCARTY.

A valuable Farm for Sale.
THE SUBSCRIBER will sell, on reasonable terms, a valuable and productive farm of 600 acres, or thereabouts—being part of the lands of the late Richard Brent, lying on Kettle Run in the county of Prince William, in the state of Virginia—20 miles from the Occoquan Mills—33 miles from Alexandria, and about the same distance from Georgetown and the City of Washington. This farm lies in the centre of an excellent neighborhood—is handsomely situated—abundantly watered, and has upon it an ample proportion of wood. The soil is naturally strong, and a considerable portion of it has, for some years past, been cultivated according to the most approved rules of modern husbandry—Possession will be given on the first day of January next. The terms upon which this property will be sold, will be made known upon application to George L. Brent, of Stafford County, Va. or to the subscriber living in Alexandria.

Rich Kenhawa Lands for Sale or Barter
I WILL sell or exchange, for property in this district or its vicinity, a valuable tract of Land in Mason county, Virginia, situate on the Great Kenhawa River, at the mouth of Eighteen Mile Creek, distant from Point Pleasant about eighteen miles. This tract binds upon the river, and contains by patent one thousand and fifty acres, a large proportion of which is rich bottom. The title is old, and indisputable, having been located and surveyed by Gen. Washington before the Revolution. What may be considered as adding much to its value is the passage of the western road through it. By a reference to Mr. Madison's map of Virginia, the situation of the land may be designated. Apply to Colonel Francis Peyton, or ANN-ELIZA PEYTON.
October 8

For Sale,
THE Tract of Land whereon I reside, containing 709 acres, binding on the Little River Turnpike Road, and adjoining the town at Fairfax court house, about 10 miles from Alexandria and 14 miles from Georgetown and Washington city. It lies handsomely and is extremely well watered; about three hundred acres in wood. This tract might be divided into three or four lots with great convenience, as to cleared land, wood and water.
ALSO,
One other Tract of Land adjoining, containing 606 acres, nearly half in wood—lies well and is well watered—with a great proportion of good meadow land. This tract might conveniently be divided into three or four lots.
ALSO,
One other Tract of Land, containing 438 acres, adjacent to the first mentioned—lies well and well watered—to a considerable improvement, with a sufficiency of wood and timber. This tract might be divided into two suitable lots.
A more minute description is thought unnecessary, as no person would purchase without viewing the lands, which can be shown at any time.
These tracts will be sold as they are, or divided into lots to suit purchasers, and will be sold a bargain, if immediately application be made. Possession of the first and last mentioned tracts can be had at any time, the other the first day of January next. The terms will be a small proportion in cash; for the balance, any reasonable credit, on being well secured, and interest paid annually.

James Kennedy & Son, BOOKSELLERS,
KING-STREET, ALEXANDRIA,
RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from
Lee's Medicine Store,
No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:
Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges.
Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various & vigorous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title so commonly complained of as operating with violence, on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.
Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebra or large round worm; the Ascariides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenebra or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomits," and purging of children—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of ILLIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended
HAIN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuous, proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result, from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are of ten of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance; they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-aches—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions. To persons who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,
Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Corruptions of the stomach and Lowness of spirits back
Loss of appetite Indigestion
Impurity of blood Melancholy
Hysterical affection Gout in the stomach
Inward weaknesses Pains in the limbs and debility Relaxations, &c.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.
A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c. &c.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.
An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,
A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.
The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops.
For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.
